

CAREGIVER PROFILE

Questions to ask the individuals who will provide care and assistance to the patient with dementia

Questions	Yes	No	Resources
Do you understand Alzheimer’s disease and other dementias?			Alzheimer’s Association® alz.org® 800.272.3900 Provides disease education, support groups, and personalized care consultation in person, online and through a free 24/7 Helpline. Alzheimer’s Disease Education and Referral (ADEAR) nia.nih.gov/alzheimers 800.438.4380 Offers disease information online or by phone for individuals with Alzheimer’s or other dementias and their families.
Do you know where you can obtain additional information about the disease?			Administration on Community Living alzheimers.gov Supports individuals living with Alzheimer’s or other dementias and their caregivers by increasing access to community resources.
Are you able and willing to provide care and/or assistance?			Alzheimer’s Association alz.org 800.282.3900 Care consultants are available to talk all day, every day via the 24/7 Helpline, and support groups take place in communities nationwide. ALZConnected® alzconnected.org Online community that connects individuals facing the disease and provides online support. Community Resource Finder alz.org/CRF Find local programs, resources and support services.
Do you know where you can receive support as a caregiver?			Aging Life Care Association aginglifecare.org Locate a geriatric care manager. Family Caregiver Alliance caregiver.org Offers support for family and friends providing long-term, in-home care. Eldercare Locator eldercare.gov Connects older adults and their caregivers with local services and provides resource referrals and contact information for state and local agencies on aging.