Our Mission

To eliminate Alzheimer's disease through the advancement of research; to provide and enhance care and support for all affected; and to reduce the risk of dementia through the promotion of brain health.

Did You Know?

Alzheimer's disease is currently the sixth leading cause of death in the United States and affects approximately 5.4 million Americans - including an estimated 44,000 in the Greater Cincinnati area.

Who We Are

The Alzheimer's Association of Greater Cincinnati is a non-profit organization not affiliated with United Way. Funding for programs and services is achieved through individual, foundation and corporate support as well as special events. All services are provided without regard to race, color, religion, sex, disability, national origin or ancestry. Various programs and services are funded, in part, by the Ohio Department of Aging through the Council on Aging of Southwestern Ohio and the Area Agency on Aging, District 7.

Greater Cincinnati Chapter

Education

Family Caregiver Education - A variety of education programs are available for families of people diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease or other forms of dementia. Topics include symptoms, treatments, managing care challenges, safety concerns, coping strategies and more.

Early Stage Strategy Group - An education/support series for persons in the early stages of Alzheimer's disease or a related dementia and their primary caregiver. Sessions provide information about the disease, advice on future planning and opportunities to share experiences with others.

Professional Education Programs - Offers a comprehensive overview of dementing illnesses and issues related to caregiving specifically designed for health care professionals and paraprofessionals.

Community Education - With a focus on reaching diverse segments of the community, Chapter staff and volunteers are available for free presentations to social groups, civic and religious organizations, clubs and schools.

Online Learning - The Alzheimer's Association offers online courses about Alzheimer's disease or other dementias. These courses provide information on detection, causes and risk factors, stages of the disease, treatment and much more. Visit: <http://elearning.alz.org>.

Support

You can access 24-hour assistance
by calling the Helpline at:
1-800-272-3900

Helpline - A telephone assistance service which provides information, supportive services and referral to Alzheimer's Association programs and/or community resources.

Family Care Consultations - A health care professional provides individualized education and care planning to families of individuals with dementia who are experiencing caregiving challenges.

Family Support Groups - Small discussion groups designed for family caregivers and friends which meet regularly in community settings. All meetings are facilitated by a professional and/or a family caregiver with an emphasis on peer support.

Early-Onset Groups - A special focus group for families of individuals who have been diagnosed with dementia under the age of 60.

Early Stage Dementia Consultations - A health care professional provides individualized education and support to persons in the early stages of Alzheimer's disease or related dementia.

Online Caregiver Coaching - At alzcoaching.org, a personal coach provides individualized education, support and care planning assistance to family caregivers through a secure Web site.

Memories in the Making[®] - An art program that provides individuals in the early or middle stages of Alzheimer's disease an opportunity for self-expression through the visual arts.
