Alzheimer's Association Round to Remember™ Golf Classic raises nearly $56,000

Cedar Rapids, IA, May 25th- A full tournament of 144 golfers came together to support the Alzheimer's Association East Central Iowa Chapter on Monday, May 24th for the 20th annual Alzheimer's Association Round to Remember™ Golf Classic. The event, held at the prominent Cedar Rapids Golf & Country Club, raised nearly $56,000 for the Alzheimer's Association East Central Iowa Chapter. Funds raised at this year's golf event will fund Alzheimer research, education, support and advocacy.

Participants enjoyed a grill-out style luncheon on the patio, followed by a short introduction from Event Chairman, Bob Vancura. Golfers teed off with a shot-gun start at 12:30. Following their 18 holes, golfers gathered for cocktails and a short awards reception. Generous donors from the area provided gifts for flag event and door prizes. The top 8 flight winners received prizes, including the 2010 Round to Remember Championship flight- Dr. Arlon Berkhof, Larry Bergdale, Dick Larson, and Roger Lemke. The awards reception concluded when Robert Walker and Larry Bergdale were drawn as the winners of the Round to Remember Raffle, each receiving a $500 cash prize.

This year's Gallery Sponsor was Mercy Medical Center. Tournament Sponsors included: Area Ambulance, Bernet Concrete Contactor, Bottleworks, CRST, Dr. Larry McCray, Executive Development, Fleck Sales, King's Material, Lil' Drug Store, Premiere Developers, Rockwell Collins, Skogman Realty, Suburban Lumber, TrueNorth, United Fire Group and US Bank.

About the Alzheimer's Association:
