Conference Presenters

Kathleen Coen Buckwalter, PhD, RN, FAAN

Dr. Kathleen Buckwalter, University of Iowa Sally Mathis Hartwig Professor of Gerontological Nursing Research, was named Associate Provost for Health Sciences from 1997-2004. In addition to her primary academic appointment as professor of nursing, she is Director of the John A. Hartford Center for Geriatric Nursing Excellence, Co-Director of the University of Iowa Geriatric Nursing Research Center, Co-Director of the National Health Policy and Resource Center. She has secondary appointments in the College of Medicine Departments of Psychiatry and Internal Medicine, College of Public Health and College of Law. She was appointed to the State of Iowa Commission of Elder Affairs in 2004 and the Judicial Nominating Commission in 2007.

Dr. Buckwalter is recognized internationally for her research in psychiatric nursing, aging and long term care, and has a sustained record of private and federal support related to the evaluation of clinical nursing interventions for geropsychiatric populations. Her particular interest is in behavioral management strategies for rural caregivers of persons with dementia and the effectiveness of community programs to prevent, minimize, and treat psychiatric problems in the rural elderly.

Nadine Schlien, RN, CHPN

Nadine Schlien is the Clinical Manager of the Paula J. Baber Hospice Home in Fort Dodge. She is a graduate of St. Luke and has been employed by Trinity Regional Medical Center for over 30 years and has worked in various areas of nursing there. For the past 21 years, she has worked in hospice care and has been certified in Hospice and Palliative Care for 15 years. Nadine is passionate about end of life care in our community and feels every individual has the right to die with dignity and respect.
