

Third-Party Fundraisers

Third-party Fundraisers are an important way to build awareness and raise funds for the Chapter. These types of events are great for a church group, youth group, fraternity, sorority or a business to show support for those struggling with Alzheimer's. Third-party fundraisers have raised thousands of dollars this year. Here are some ideas to get you started:

- Auto & Quilt Auction
- Garage Sale
- Chili cook-off
- Golf tournament
- Sock Sales
- Jeans Day
- Chocolates and Champagne
- Sunday Sundaes
- Art Sale
- Book Signing
- Basket Bingo
- Antique Appraisal
- Jazz Trio
- Pancake Dinner
- Wedding Tribute Gifts

Ideas for Youth

- Lollipop Sales
- Spaghetti Supper
- Ebay Auction/Yard Sale
- Yard Work, Housekeeping or Babysitting for a Cause
- Cell Phone Recycling
- Car Wash
- Holiday Gift Wrap
- Dance-a-thon
- Mall coat check

Ideas for the Work Place

- Casual for a Cause
- Bake sale/raffle
- Ugly tie contest
- Use www.goodsearch.com. Enter "Alzheimers

Association Greater Richmond Chapter" as the charity you 'Good Search for'
