Alzheimer's Association to Present Educational Program in Bartonville October 6

The Alzheimer's Association - Central Illinois Chapter will present "Alzheimer's 101," a program that provides a general overview of dementia, Thursday, Oct. 6, from 1:00 – 4:00 p.m., at the Alpha Park Public Library, 3527 S. Airport Road, Bartonville.

The program will be presented by Alisha Dault, MA, Program Director for the chapter. Dault will explore the common causes of memory loss, including Alzheimer's disease and other related dementias; the stages and symptoms of Alzheimer's, the importance of a good medical examination, and current research and treatments. Information about the Alzheimer's Association Trialmatch, a clinical studies matching service, will also be available.

The program is co-funded by the Central Illinois Agency on Aging. Registration fee is $5 per person or $10 per family.

Registration is required. Individuals should call 309-681-1100 or 1-800-272-3900 to register.

The Alzheimer's Association provides services to caregivers and those with memory loss problems including family education, 24-hour telephone Helpline, library, support groups, newsletter, advocacy, patient referral and guidance services, and registration in the national Medic Alert + Safe Return identification program.

For additional information about the program or agency services, visit the Chapter website at www.alz.org/illinoiscentral.
