Alzheimer's Association to Offer Free Legal & Financial Program

Families affected by Alzheimer's disease and related dementias can better prepare for their loved one's long term care future by attending an upcoming legal and financial program hosted by the Alzheimer's Association - Central Illinois Chapter, Quincy Area Branch.

The Legal and Financial Forum is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 22, from 6:00 – 7:30 p.m., at the Quincy Senior & Family Resource Center, 639 York Street, Quincy.

Guest speaker will be Tom Leeper. Mr. Leeper, a former state's attorney, is in private practice and specializes in elder law, estate planning, real estate, trusts and worker's compensation. He is also a member of the Illinois Bar Association. There will be time immediately following the session for questions and answers.

The program is free and open to the public. It is made possible, in part, by a grant from the West Central Illinois Area Agency on Aging.

To register for this program or receive information about agency services, call the Quincy Office at 228.1111.

The Alzheimer's Association - Central Illinois Chapter is a donor supported, not-for-profit health organization serving 20 counties in central and west central Illinois. Its three office locations, Peoria, Quincy, and Dixon are committed to providing educational and supportive services to help people with Alzheimer's and their caregivers understand and deal with the disease and its impact on their lives.
