Alzheimer's Association to Present Educational Program in Nauvoo

The Alzheimer's Association – Central Illinois Chapter, Quincy Area Branch, will present “Alzheimer's 101,” a program that provides a general overview of dementia, Thursday, August 25th, from 1:30 – 4:00 p.m., at Christ Lutheran Church, 1110 Ripley Street, Nauvoo.

Alzheimer's 101 will be presented by Amy Voss, MS, Program Specialist with the Alzheimer's Association - Central Illinois Chapter. Voss will explore the common causes of memory loss, including Alzheimer's disease and other related dementias, the stages and symptoms of Alzheimer's, the importance of a good medical examination, and current research and treatments.

The program is free and open to the public. Registration is required. Individuals should call the Quincy Branch at 217.228.1111 or 800.272.3900 to register.

The Alzheimer's Association, Central Illinois Chapter, is a donor supported, not-for-profit health organization serving 20 counties in central and west central Illinois. Its three office locations, Dixon, Peoria, and Quincy, are committed to providing educational and supportive services to help people with Alzheimer's and their caregivers understand and deal with the disease and its impact on their lives. Its core programs include information and referral, care consultations, education, support groups and safety services.

For additional information about the program or agency services, log onto the Chapter website at www.alz.org/illinoiscentral.
