For Immediate Release:

Harvest Moon Night Golf Event in Barry to Benefit Alzheimer's Association

Individuals will be swinging their clubs in the light of the Harvest Moon at a night time golf event in Barry to benefit the Alzheimer's Association, Quincy Area Branch.

The fundraiser will be held Friday, October 7th at BowLake Golf Course, 1500 Croxville Drive, Barry. Dinner will begin at 6:00 p.m., followed by a Best Ball Scramble, beginning with a shotgun start at 6:30 p.m.

Registration fee is $50 per person and includes greens fees, barbeque dinner, drink tickets, golf cart, two glow in the dark golf balls and a glow necklace. Corporate sponsor for the event is Rinella Company.

"This golf event is for people who want to come out and have a really fun time and not worry about their golfing ability," says Breeana Hill, Branch Manager with the Alzheimer's Association, Quincy Area Office. "Our committee is a group of energetic community volunteers who want to have a good time while helping us move our mission forward."

For more information, call Breeana Hill at 228.1111 or download a registration form or register online at www.alz.org/illinoiscentral.

The Alzheimer's Association – Central Illinois Chapter, is a donor supported, not-for-profit health organization serving 20 counties in central, northern and west central Illinois. Its three office locations – Dixon, Peoria, and Quincy – are committed to providing educational and supportive services to help people with Alzheimer's disease and their caregivers understand and deal with the disease and its impact on their lives.

The Quincy Area Branch provides free programs and services to residents in Adams, Brown, Hancock, Pike and Schuyler Counties.
