

Alzheimer's Advocacy Town Meetings:

“Alzheimer's Affects the Whole Family – Important State Programs Must Be Maintained.”

Lexington, Kentucky

Thursday, November 5, 2009: 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

KET Visitors Center
600 Cooper Drive, Lexington, KY 40502

GUEST SPEAKERS: State Representatives Kelly Flood, 75th District, and Susan Westrom, 79th District

Ashland, Kentucky

Monday, November 16, 2009: 5:30 – 7:00 p.m.

Boyd County Library
1740 Central Ave., Ashland, KY 41129

GUEST SPEAKER: State Senator Robin Webb, 18th District

Paducah, Kentucky

Friday, November 20, 2009: 12 Noon – 1:00 p.m.

West KY Community & Technical College, Room 207 Rosenthal Hall
4810 Alben Barkley Drive Paducah, Kentucky 42001

GUEST SPEAKERS: State Representative Fred Nesler, 2nd District; and Steven Rudy, 1st District

Bowling Green, Kentucky

Monday, December 7: 12:30 p.m. – 1:30 p.m.

Warren County Public Library, First Floor Meeting Room
1225 State Street, Bowling Green 42101

GUEST SPEAKERS: State Representative Jody Richards, 20th District; and State Senator Mike Reynolds, 32nd District

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- Ø Hear from elected officials about the outlook at the state capitol in Frankfort.

- Ø Comment on and ask questions about important state programs, like Home Care, Adult Protective Services and Medicaid.
- Ø Get the latest information on Alzheimer's public policy issues and upcoming advocacy actions.

Register today for these free advocacy events: 1-800-272-3900 or email: infokyin@alz.org

These free advocacy programs are for family members, persons with dementia, caregivers – everyone who wants to help make a difference in our battle against Alzheimer's disease.

To register, call 1-800-272-3900; for information contact Ellen Kershaw, ellen.kershaw@alz.org , (502) 451-4266.