

Popular Searches

What language resources are available on dementia?

Families and health care professionals are often looking for dementia resources in languages other than English. Identified here are a selected list of Web sites providing dementia materials in international languages.

Prepared by the Alzheimer's Association Green-Field Library; greenfield@alz.org; 312.335.9602

Language Resources

Alzheimer's Association Resources

Spanish

Chicago, IL: Alzheimer's Association National Office

<http://www.alz.org/espanol/overview-espanol.asp>

Chinese

Chicago, IL: Alzheimer's Association National Office

http://www.alz.org/living_with_alzheimers_chinese_10_signs.asp

Other Languages

Chicago, IL: Alzheimer's Association National Office

http://www.alz.org/alzheimers_disease_languages.asp

International Resources

Alzheimer's Disease International (ADI) language materials from Alzheimer's Associations worldwide

London, UK: Alzheimer's Disease International

<http://www.alz.co.uk>

Cue cards in community languages for caring for persons with dementia

Victoria, AU: Eastern Health

<http://www.easternhealth.org.au>

Dementia: what you need to know (8 languages)

Edinburgh: Alzheimer Scotland

<http://www.alzscot.org>

Dementia, answers to common questions about memory loss and confusion (16 languages)

North Sydney, AU: New South Wales Health

Scroll down to "Other languages"

<http://www.health.nsw.gov.au>

Dementia information in other languages (28 languages)

Hawker Act, AU: Alzheimer's Australia

<http://www.alzheimers.org.au>

Dementia types (10 languages)

Columbus, OH: Health Information Translations

<http://www.healthinfotranslations.com>

Non-English language resources (6 languages)

Vancouver, BC: Alzheimer Society

<http://www.alzheimerbc.org>