Lisa Uckardes

A resident of Long Island, Lisa Uckardes enjoys an active career as a soloist, chamber player and orchestral musician. Ms. Uckardes is the concertmistress of the Nassau Pops Symphony Orchestra, as well as the Nassau Community College Symphony Orchestra. She is also a violinist for the Island Chamber Symphony. In addition to being an active orchestral musician, Ms. Uckardes has also been featured as a soloist with several orchestras on Long Island and enjoys performing in chamber music recitals with various colleagues. Throughout her career, she has had the opportunity to play at numerous concert halls, libraries and parks on Long Island. Currently, she is the string director of the North Bellmore School District.

Ms. Uckardes will be accompanied by...

Gary Klein

Concert pianist, Gary Klein has performed in over eight-hundred concerts as both a soloist and chamber player since his arrival on the New York scene in 1972. His Carnegie Recital Hall debut in 1981 earned him a standing ovation. Bernard Holland of the New York Times described Klein as "an innately musical soul who played with virtuosity and admirable clarity." In addition to maintaining an active concert schedule as both a soloist and chamber player, Gary maintains a private teaching practice and is a member of the CW Post University piano faculty in Brookville, New York.
