

MATTHEWS
MOBILE MEDIA

We are excited to announce a major change that has taken place at Matthews over the past month. Over the past sixteen years we have served our clients as Matthews Specialty Graphics. During this time, we have established a solid customer base both locally and nationally. We have become a respected operation in our industry and we owe this to our customers.

However, we have recently decided to change our identity in order to adapt to the ever-evolving vinyl graphics industry. Our new identity, M3 (Matthews Mobile Media) was developed to pinpoint our services in broad graphics world.

This past year has brought a number of new faces to the Matthews team and we are all very excited about our new identity and the direction we are headed. Though the name has changed, our commitment to customer service and satisfaction has not.
