Meet Me at the MAG

Join the Alzheimer's Association every month for a free interactive tour at the Memorial Art Gallery, one of the finest regional museums in the country. "Meet Me at the MAG" is designed exclusively for persons diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease along with a friend or loved one.

Tours led by Gallery docents feature the permanent collection as well as special exhibitions.

Viewing the artwork leads to engaging discussions about themes, artists and the exhibition on view.

Tours are held the first Tuesday of every month
2:30- 4:00pm.

This special program is free of charge but advance registration is required.

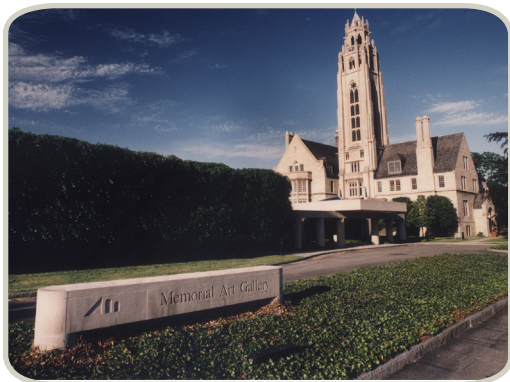

Free transportation is available with one week's notice.

To register or for further information, please call 800.272.3900. Space is limited.

UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

The Memorial Art Gallery, a division of the University of Rochester, is one of the nation's outstanding regional art museums. In addition to its collection, the Gallery offers a year-round schedule of temporary exhibitions and programs for lifelong learning, from art classes to lectures, from tours to family activities.

The Alzheimer's Association is the world's leading voluntary health organization in Alzheimer's care, support and research. Our mission is to eliminate Alzheimer's disease through the advancement of research; to provide and enhance care and support for all affected; and to reduce the risk of dementia through the promotion of brain health.

Our vision is a world without Alzheimer's disease.

Meet Me at the MAG is underwritten in part by a gift made in memory of Audrey Gordon.
