

Red Bud Regional Hospital and Nursing Home presents

The HBO Series: THE ALZHEIMER'S PROJECT

Please join us for this acclaimed HBO documentary series that proves that there is genuine reason to be optimistic about the future of the treatment of Alzheimer's Disease.

This 6 part documentary series allows participants to view the HBO series with other families who are living with the disease. Hospital and Nursing Home staff members will be available to facilitate discussions after each movie presentation.

Upcoming viewings

September 1 6:30-8pm

The Memory Loss Tapes: (Part 1-Early to mid-stages dementia) Documentary captures the devastating experience of memory loss from the point of view of the person with the disease.

September 10 6:30-8pm

The Memory Loss Tapes (Part 2-Mid to late stages of dementia)

September 29 6:30-8pm

Caregivers: Collection of five families portraits that illustrate caring for different stages of Alzheimer's Disease.

October 6 6:30-7:30pm

Grandpa, Do you Know Who I Am? with Maria Shriver: Inspired by her children's book "What's Happening to Grandpa?" and her own experience with her own father, Sargent Shriver, who has the disease. Helps children cope with the experiences of having loved ones with the disease. Children age 10 and older are welcome to attend this viewing.

October 13 6:30-8pm

Momentum in Science: (Part 1) Takes viewers inside the laboratories and clinics of 25 leading scientists and physicians revealing some of the most cutting edge research advances.

October 20 6:30-8pm

Momentum in Science (Part 2)

Each event will be held in the Hospital auditorium on ground level.*

Please register to attend by calling 282-5486. If leaving a message, state your name, phone number, and the viewing that you plan to attend.

Quality Care.

Close to Home.