Join us to share your experiences, find strength, hope and even the humor you need to face the journey ahead. Our goal is to build relationships and create a circle of support among peers who are experiencing similar life challenges. Groups will be small and intimate and our caring professionals will be on hand to lend support and assistance.

Enjoy light refreshments and the chance to meet others who understand.

To join our group, RSVP to 802-985-8600.
