Course Description

The Alzheimer's Association Health Care Summit: Advancing Quality and Innovation brings together national health care leaders, providers and associated key influencers. This conference will focus on actionable strategies to improve quality care, lower total cost of care and strengthen dementia care systems. It will feature presentations and discussion about strategies and models that can be adapted to organizations, and to gain peer insights that support planning, scaling and operational execution.

Learning Objectives

By the end of this Summit, participants will be able to:

- Evaluate the current national landscape of Alzheimer's disease and related dementias (ADRD) and assess implications for health systems, health plans, and population health strategies.
- Apply evidence-based approaches across the disease continuum from risk reduction, early detection and timely diagnosis, care management and transitions of ADRD to improve outcomes and reduce avoidable utilization costs.
- Analyze and compare care delivery models and health plan strategies that improve coordination, quality, and efficiency across the dementia care continuum.
- Identify strategies to integrate caregiver support and care navigation into care delivery systems, including partnerships with community-based organizations.
