April 2024

April is National Minority Health Month

Alzheimer’s and other neurodegenerative disorders affect more=than two-thirds of American adults. The National Minority Health Month is an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our communities and to address health disparities. The Alzheimer’s Association has developed a series of infographics on social determinants of health (SDOH) related to dementia risk to learn more about SDOH.

April 2024

April is National Minority Health Month

Alzheimer’s and other neurodegenerative disorders affect more=than two-thirds of American adults. The National Minority Health Month is an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our communities and to address health disparities. The Alzheimer’s Association has developed a series of infographics on social determinants of health (SDOH) related to dementia risk to learn more about SDOH.

April 2024

April is National Minority Health Month

Alzheimer’s and other neurodegenerative disorders affect more=than two-thirds of American adults. The National Minority Health Month is an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our communities and to address health disparities. The Alzheimer’s Association has developed a series of infographics on social determinants of health (SDOH) related to dementia risk to learn more about SDOH.

April 2024

April is National Minority Health Month

Alzheimer’s and other neurodegenerative disorders affect more=than two-thirds of American adults. The National Minority Health Month is an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our communities and to address health disparities. The Alzheimer’s Association has developed a series of infographics on social determinants of health (SDOH) related to dementia risk to learn more about SDOH.

April 2024

April is National Minority Health Month

Alzheimer’s and other neurodegenerative disorders affect more=than two-thirds of American adults. The National Minority Health Month is an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our communities and to address health disparities. The Alzheimer’s Association has developed a series of infographics on social determinants of health (SDOH) related to dementia risk to learn more about SDOH.

April 2024

April is National Minority Health Month

Alzheimer’s and other neurodegenerative disorders affect more=than two-thirds of American adults. The National Minority Health Month is an opportunity to celebrate the diversity in our communities and to address health disparities. The Alzheimer’s Association has developed a series of infographics on social determinants of health (SDOH) related to dementia risk to learn more about SDOH.