

Alzheimer's Community Forum

Alzheimer's disease, dementia and memory loss

Community forums hosted by the Greater Cincinnati Chapter of the Alzheimer's Association are intended to bring together people affected by the disease and interested community members to an open conversation about the disease, resources, programs and services to support caregivers. Participants will also discover volunteer opportunities to support individuals and caregivers affected by the disease.

Registration is requested.

To register online click here

alzheimer's  association®