MAKE A DIFFERENCE:
VOLUNTEER WITH THE ALZHEIMER'S ASSOCIATION

Millions of Americans are impacted by Alzheimer's disease, and you can do something to help by becoming an Alzheimer's Association® volunteer. Our ability to reach and support those affected depends on people like you who are dedicated to the fight against this disease.

As an Association volunteer, you can use your unique talents to make a meaningful impact in your community while connecting with others who share your passion. Find the role that's the best fit for you!

Are you interested in:

- Connecting with a variety of people in your area?
- Teaching caregivers about Alzheimer's?
- Organizing fun social activities for people living with Alzheimer's?
- Helping community members find programs and services?
- Creating a safe environment where people can share feelings and experiences?
- Advocating for people affected by Alzheimer's?
- Inviting others to join the cause?
- Raising funds to advance the fight to end Alzheimer's?

Getting started is easy! Sign up today at alz.org/volunteer.

Advocate: Help improve the quality of life for people with Alzheimer’s disease and their families by carrying out our message to elected officials at the federal, state and local levels. Communicate with elected officials via letters, phone calls and other calls-to-action, participate in area events and share your story.

Community Educators: Deliver presentations using prepared training materials on topics related to Alzheimer’s disease and other dementias to community organizations, care facilities, businesses and places of worship.

Community Representatives: Attend local public events to raise awareness of chapter programs and services, provide information on Alzheimer’s disease and link people to Alzheimer’s Association services.

Early Stage Social Engagement Leaders: Plan, implement and assure positive experiences during social engagement events and activities for people living with memory loss and their care partners.

Faith Outreach Representatives: Serve as a liaison between the Alzheimer’s Association and your local faith group and congregation by sharing information about Alzheimer’s disease or providing free resources offered through the Alzheimer’s Association.

Office Support: Share your time and talents by working at the office performing a variety of administrative/clerical tasks. Projects may include: general clerical work, data entry, editing, filing, mailings, packet preparation and telephone work.

Receptionist: Help people who come to our office feel welcome and supported as the Director of First Impressions. Other tasks and requirements include: clerical and data entry, prepare mailing and packets, manage incoming calls and assisting with outgoing calls. Must be friendly, courteous, have the ability to communicate effectively and enjoy working in an office setting. Our receptionists work a four-hour shift: 8:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m. or 12:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Special Events: Assist with the planning and execution of fundraisers such as Walk to End Alzheimer’s and The Longest Day. Committee member tasks include recruiting team members, raising revenue, increasing awareness and implementing event activities.

Support Group Facilitators: Create a safe, open environment where people share their feelings, thoughts and experiences in a combined effort to better cope with and manage the shared problems of dementia.

Physician Outreach Representative: Serve as a liaison between the Alzheimer’s Association and local medical professionals. Tasks include direct phone calls to physician offices, preparing direct mailings and delivering information to physician office locations.
