20TH ANNUAL UPPER PENINSULA CONFERENCE

Keynote Speaker: Bruno Giordani, PhD

Alzheimer’s in 2018: Latest Advances in Diagnosis, Care, and Prevention
Associated with the University of Michigan, Michigan Alzheimer’s Disease Center for over 25 years, Dr. Giordani has a longstanding history of connecting with the community to promote a better understanding of Alzheimer’s disease and related conditions. He is the Chief of Psychology and a tenured Professor in the Psychiatry, Neurology and Psychology Departments as well as the School of Nursing and is a University Faculty Ombuds at the University of Michigan. His research initiatives focus on a cross-cultural perspective on the early assessment of cognitive and behavioral changes associated with medical illness and the interaction of cognition and mobility across the life-span. Dr. Giordani completed his MA and PhD in Clinical Psychology at the University of Virginia and received his postdoctoral training in Clinical and Research Neuropsychology at the University of Michigan.
