The Summit is free and open to the public. Registration is required as space is limited.

Purpose: Convene key stakeholders from Iowa health systems, state and local governmental organizations and legislative members, academia, and organizations working in Iowa’s aging network to explore ways to coordinate efforts for improved care and services for those living with dementia and their caregivers.

Agenda

8:30am  Registration

9:00am  Welcome, Introductions and Agenda Overview

9:15am  Joseph Gaugler, PhD, Professor, Division of Health Policy and Management, University of Minnesota School of Public Health, CDC-Recognized Alzheimer’s Center of Excellence for Caregiving

9:45am  Panel Discussion/Q&A

Iowa Dementia Landscape: Explore Iowa’s approaches to dementia education, awareness and care

- Kelly Garcia, MPA, Director, Iowa Department of Health and Human Services
- Linda J. Miller, Director, Iowa Department on Aging
- Doug Bickford, Executive Director, Alzheimer’s Association, Iowa Chapter

10:45 am  Break

11:00 am  Panel Discussion/Q&A

Gap Analysis: Explore cost-effective policies that have improved the lives of those living with dementia and their caregivers while saving public dollars and utilizing resources more effectively

- Joseph Gaugler, PhD, University of Minnesota School of Public Health, CDC-Recognized Alzheimer’s Center of Excellence for Caregiving
12:00 pm Break & Lunch (Box lunches provided by the Alzheimer’s Association)

12:30 pm Panel Discussion/Q&A
Dementia Care Delivery: Explore how dementia care is delivered through a variety of service providers.

- Yogesh Shah, MD, MPH, Broadlawns Medical Center
  Aging Friendly Health System.

- Megan Zimmerman, LBSW, Northeast Iowa Area Agency on Aging
  Dementia Friendly Communities.

- Elizabeth Matney, MS, State Medicaid Director, Iowa Department of Health and Human Services

1:30pm Break

1:45 pm Small Group Breakout Discussions
Identifying Gaps in our Current System
Participants will break into groups according to color designating them to a sector of care or service they represent in the aging network. Discussion will be guided by a facilitator with each group addressing three questions to solicit gaps in dementia services and associated solutions

2:30 pm Full Group Sharing and Discussion
Ideas for Improving Dementia Care in the Public and Private Sector
Ideas generated during the 1:30 pm session will be reported out by the facilitator of each group

3:00 pm Participant Sharing
Organizational Policy Priorities and Opportunities for Dementia Care Improvements

3:30pm Closing