

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Activities	Activities for older people in care homes: a handbook for successful activity planning / S. Crockett, 2013	Activities for Older People in Care Homes complements other resources on activities with information on assessing residents for suitable activities, planning, timetables, budgeting and stretching the dollars, staff buy-in and peer-to-peer advice. Also provides step-by-step instructions for implementing activities including arts and crafts, cooking, exercise, gardening, mediation, music, reminiscence, and seasonal themes.
Activities	Activities to do with your parent who has Alzheimer's dementia / J.A. Levy, 2014	Activities to do with your parents... (authored by an instructor in occupational therapist with more than forty years experience in multiple healthcare settings) contains activity assessment forms, fifty plus activities with ideas for implementation, safety suggestions, and more.
Activities	Best friend's book of Alzheimer's activities Vol. 1 / D. Troxel & V. Bell, 2004	Best Friend's Book of Alzheimer's Activities describes 147 activities suitable for all care setting including home care for early and late stages. It contains formal and informal activities and suggested music and songs; activities that are adaptable; activities for unprogrammed times such as evenings, and those focusing on men and intergenerational groups.
Activities	Best friend's book of Alzheimer's activities Vol. 2 / D. Troxel & V. Bell, 2007	Volume 2 of Best Friend's Book of Alzheimer's Activities contains 149 new activities and themes for adults with dementia covering all stages in all care settings. Includes topics not easily found elsewhere like avoiding surprises and conversation tips. Creative art projects, interactive games, and evening activities are included and those for persons in their 50s and 60s like using the internet and community service.
Activities	Conversation cards for adults: an interactive activity for reminiscing and storytelling / Shadowbox press, 2017	Developed by an activity director for reminiscing and conversation about aspects of a person's life.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Activities	Creating moments of joy for the person with Alzheimer's or dementia / J. Brackey, 2008	Creating Moments of Joy offers many ways to create pleasing moments for the person with dementia. It can be used daily no matter the environment or situation. Five sections and subsections provide varied methods to help caregivers engage their loved one in positive experiences.
Activities	Creative arts in dementia care: practical person-centered approaches and ideas / J. Hayes & S. Povey, 2010	Creative Arts in Dementia Care provides examples of the therapeutic benefits of song, movement, storytelling and meditation for the care of persons with dementia. Case studies help illustrate the points of this person-centered approach.
Activities	Color you mind: a coloring book for those with Alzheimer's and people who love them / M. Shriver and B.L. Thompson, 2017	Provides an opportunity to converse and connect with the person living with the disease to color inside or outside the lines. Includes the categories: well-being, social connection, sleep, nutrition, exercise, and move your mind.
Activities	Connecting in the land of dementia: creative activities to explore together / D. Shouse, 2016	Experiences and projects to enhance creative and artistic ways that caregivers and persons living with dementia can connect emotionally and strengthen communication.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Activities	End-of-life Namaste Care Program for people with dementia / J. Simard, 2013	The Namaste Care Program provides guidance on implementing peaceful activities and sensory experiences for persons with advanced dementia stressing their individuality and dignity. Notable are the recommendations for creating special rooms in nursing facilities for those dying, with little additional cost, and bereavement activities for staff.
Activities	Joy boosters: 120 ways to encourage older adults / M. Buchanan, 2013	Joy Boosters contains ideas for helping improve the well being of older adults with simple and practical ideas. Useful for families, residential care facilities, and faith-based organizations.
Activities	Let's look together: an interactive picture book for people with Alzheimer's and other forms of memory loss / by R.C. Ziegler, 2009	Let's Look Together offers 29 full-color photographs depicting easily recognizable emotions and everyday images with suggestions on how to use. Activities include reminiscence triggered by the images, the telling of stories about the images, what might precede or follow certain actions, and more. Includes conversation starters. Promotes family interaction.
Activities	Montessori-based activities for persons with dementia / C. Camp (editor), 2001	The goal of this activity resource in two volumes is to improve basic activities of daily living skills and to provide ideas for recreational pastime. Using principles of Montessori education, the books include activities for basic tasks like eating, dressing, interacting and socializing as well as sensory stimulation and exercise.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Activities	Shadowbox Press books - interactive books for memory-impaired adults / M. Schneider & D. Drapac, 2011	This collection of eight interactive books are designed to provide an easy and effective way to improve the quality of communication between caregivers and memory-impaired adults. Titles include: America - Bible Verses - Colors - Dogs and Puppies - Flowers - Fun and Games - Seasons - and Wild Animals. For more information visit www.shadowboxpress.com .
Activities	Through the seasons: an activity book for memory-challenged adults and caregivers / C.R. Green & J. Beloff, 2008	Produced in large-format and color, the theme of Through the Seasons incorporates the five senses to encourage conversation and multi-sensory stimulation. The Let's Talk About... and Let's Try... questions and discussions are starting points to help create positive associations and enhance memory.
Alzheimer's Disease	Alzheimer's disease sourcebook: basic consumer health information... / K. Bellenir, 2019	An annual compendium of basic consumer health information about Alzheimer's disease and other dementias with tips for coping with memory loss and other complications and advice for caregivers
Alzheimer's Disease	Behavioral neurology of dementia /B.L. Miller & B.F. Boeve, 2011	For the expert and beginning clinician both, Behavioral Neurology of Dementia covers the types of dementias, related syndromes, the science behind them and epidemiology; approaches to mental and psychiatric assessments and interpretation; the differential diagnosis; findings related to neuroimaging; and assessing disease progression.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Alzheimer's Disease	Clinical manual of Alzheimer's disease and other dementias / M.F. Weiner & A.M. Lipton, 2012	For more technical and in-depth treatment of Alzheimer's disease, the textbook provides clinical characteristics of Alzheimer's, diagnostic evaluations, and treatments along with basic research of its causes in six parts with appendices.
Alzheimer's Disease	Alzheimer's in America: the Shriver Report on Women and Alzheimer's / Maria Shriver & The Alzheimer's Association, 2011	A study by Maria Shriver and the Alzheimer's Association. The Shriver Report is a comprehensive examination of the disproportionate impact of Alzheimer's on American women as caregivers, advocates and people living with the disease. It is multi-disciplinary report intended to ignite a national conversation with expert insight, personal essays, original photography and new data.
Bio-Autobiography	All gone: a memoir of my mother's dementia with refreshments / A. Witchel, 2013	All gone is an honest expression of a rarely told perspective in families about a daughter and her mother who is fading from the disruptions and devastations of Alzheimer's. Combined with heartbreak and humor both, Witchel skillfully weaves in the solace she receives and comfort she gives by preparing family recipes.
Bio-Autobiography	Chicken soup for the soul: living with Alzheimer's &amp; other dementias: 101 stories... / A. Newmark & A.T. Geiger, 2014	The chapters in this Chicken Soup cover a wide range of experiences related to Alzheimer's disease including: Accepting a New Reality; What Does it Feel Like?; Strategies and Tips for Coping; Next Steps and Tough Choices; Taking the Journey with Your Parent; Younger-Onset Alzheimer's; In Sickness and In Health; The Lighter Side; New Ways to Make Connections; It Takes a Village; and The Special Bond with Grandchildren

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Bio-Autobiography	Dancing with Rose: finding life in the land of Alzheimer's: one daughter's hopeful story / L. Kessler, 2008	A journalist takes a leave from her regular assignments to work in a nursing home as a resident assistant in order to gain first-hand knowledge of care. At the same time she works through feelings of guilt over her own mother's death from Alzheimer's eight years before. High turnover and the challenges of providing care are a revelation. Her work guides her through attachments and losses both, as she gains an appreciation for the individuality of each resident.
Bio-Autobiography	From the corner office to Alzheimer's / M. Ellenbogen, 2014	The author describes candidly what it is like to have Alzheimer's in an intimate and well as a socioeconomic world with insight into factors that can play into better care for persons living with the disease.
Bio-Autobiography	Jan's Story / B. Peterson, 2011	CBS News reporter Barry Petersen writes about his wife, Jan Chorlton, also a television reporter, and her diagnosis with young onset Alzheimer's Disease at age 55. What it means for their life together unfolds for the two who have reported important world events, none of which prepare them for this very personal one.
Bio-Autobiography	Speaking our minds: personal reflections from individuals with Alzheimer's / Lisa Snyder. 2009	This book provides a window into the lives of seven people who have Alzheimer's disease. Through insightful interviews and sensitive commentary, the author covers such areas as coping strategies, changes as the disease progresses, barriers to living life fully, communicating with the person, and issues of young-onset. Written for the person with the disease and anyone who interacts with them.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Bio-Autobiography	On Pluto: inside the mind of Alzheimer's / G. O'Brien, 2014	A memoir and focus of an NPR series, On Pluto profiles the author's diagnosis and personal journey into Alzheimer's with an undertone of faith, hope and humor. Greg O'Brien, an investigative reporter, drafts a compelling and candid narrative of what it is like to be diagnosed with early onset Alzheimer's disease at age 50.
Bio-Autobiography	Slow dancing with a stranger / M Comer, 2014	A broadcast journalist and leading Alzheimer's advocate shares her husband's battle with Alzheimer's disease, examining this devastating condition and its effects on the people who have it and those who care for them. From Worldcat.org
Bio-Autobiography	Somebody I used to know: a memoir / W. Mitchell, 2018	Mitchell shares the story of her diagnosis with younger onset and her fight to forestall the inevitable by seeing Alzheimer's as a gift with a chance to experience the world in fresh ways. At this writing she spends her time educating doctors and caregivers to help reduce the stigma.
Bio-Autobiography	Thousand mile stare: one family's journey through the struggle and science of Alzheimer's / G. Reiswig, 2010	The author gives an historical account of the discovery of familial Alzheimer's within a family, beginning with a persistent aunt who lead the author and his siblings to clinical trial participation related to the young onset Alzheimer's gene. At the same time they wrestle with issues of whether to test for the gene and whether to have children. At the time of this writing, his nieces approach the age when the disease may express itself.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Brain Health	Improving memory through creativity: a professional's guide to culturally sensitive cognitive training with older adults / A.A. Pike, 2014	Art therapy is a culturally sensitive method of enhancing cognitive performance. With online accompaniments and materials for use in sessions and workshops, this book combines research and practical resources to enable professionals to improve memory, mood and socialization in the ethnically diverse older population through therapeutic creativity. From Worldcat.org
Brain Health	Strengthen your mind: activities for people with early memory loss / K. Einberger & J. Sellick, 2008	Strengthen Your Mind, vols. 1 &amp; 2 contains dozens of activities and worksheets for persons with early memory loss across a broad range of interests to stimulate the mind, memories, and the senses.
Brain Health	The brain book / K. Ashwell, 2012	The Brain Book describes systems of the body that are closely related to the brain and the topology of the brain itself, furnishing the backdrop for discussions on health-related issues.
Caregiver	36 hour day: a family guide to caring for persons with Alzheimer's disease... / Mace, N.L. & P. Rabins, 2017	Through all the editions since 1981, The 36 Hour Day is a trusted guide with easy-to-read, practical, comprehensive, and responsive advice on caring for persons with dementia, breaking the cycle of despair, .

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Caregiver	Alzheimer's advisor: a caregiver's guide to dealing with the tough legal and practical issues / J. Vaughan, 2008	Alzheimer's Advisor is reviewed as empathetic and straightforward in its approach to legal and ethical issues associated with Alzheimer's disease. Using real-life situations, the author covers costs of care, estate planning, living wills, powers of attorney and guardianship, finding the right lawyer, paying for the cost of legal help, and legal issues for the Alzheimer's patient who moves. See table of contents at http://catdir.loc.gov/catdir/toc/fy0903/2008020258.html
Caregiver	Alzheimer's disease and dementia: what everyone needs to know / S. Sabat, 2018	Alzheimer's disease and dementia: what everyone needs to know covers is based on the author's years of first-hand experience observing. It includes living with the disease. causes and manifestations, current research, misconceptions, strengths retained by the person including awareness, and dozens of practical responses to their needs in question and answer format. Communicating even when the person has great difficulty finding words is possible.
Caregiver	Better living with dementia: implications for individuals, families, communities, and societies L. Gitlin and Nancy Hodgson, 2018	A compendium of functional applications about care authored by experienced clinicians with information not easily covered in other resources, In five parts: the person living with the disease, the caregiver, and the living environments, social systems and policy, and taking action.
Caregiver	Caregiver's guide to dementia: using activities and other strategies to...manage behavioral symptoms / L.N. Gitlin & C.V. Piersol, 2014	A down-to-earth guide for at-home caregivers. Includes helping assess behavior and identify triggers. Incorporates strategies that can be included with daily activities. Step-by-step directions on how to proceed can help novice caregivers succeed. Caregiver's Guide to Dementia also includes activities for effective communication and information on home safety.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Caregiver	Complete guide to Alzheimer's-proofing your home / M. Warner, 2000	Outfitting the interiors and exteriors of homes and discussions on how to cope with the potential problems related to safety, navigability and comfort for the person with Alzheimer's are emphasized in this practical book.
Caregiver	Coping with behavior change in dementia: a family caregiver's guide / B. Spencer & L. White, 2015	Similar to the authors' previous title with Anne Robinson, Understanding Difficult Behavior , this book covers causes of common behavior changes and learning to respond more effectively. The authors' philosophy is that identifying root causes can improve communication and minimize agitation, anxiety, anger, and aggression; sleep and sundowning; wanting to go home; wandering, pacing; repetitive behavior; hallucinations; delusions and paranoia; and more.
Caregiver	Dignified life: the best friends approach to Alzheimer's care: a guide for care partners / V. Bell & D. Troxel, 2012	The philosophy described in Dignified Life (revised and expanded from 2002) operates from the premise that dementia care is based on treating the person like a best friend and drawing from their strengths rather than their weaknesses. Stories in this book demonstrate the natural desires we have to build friendships and therefore communicate effectively and connect with the persons being cared for with a new generation of caregivers.
Caregiver	Hiding the stranger in the mirror: a detective's manual for solving problems associated with Alzheimer's disease... / C. Camp, 2012	Based on patient cases, Camp illustrates how to address common challenging behaviors with practical strategies and resources. At the heart of his approach is the urgency to focus on the person's strengths.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Caregiver	I'm still here: a new philosophy of Alzheimer's care / J. Zeisel, 2009	Because some aspects of personhood may not diminish over time, this book demonstrates the benefits of using music, art, facial expressions, and touch with persons with Alzheimer's to provide quality living through human connection to others and the world.
Caregiver	Learning to speak Alzheimer's / J. Coste, 2004	Relating to the person with Alzheimer's in their world is the focus of Learning to Speak Alzheimer's . The author concentrates on the method she calls the Habilitation Model which works on minimizing stress, promoting positive emotions, maximizing success, and optimizing function to enhance communication. It includes practical care, techniques for ensuring the person's dignity and for promoting positive experiences between the caregiver and the person.
Caregiver	Los mejores amigos en el cuidado de Alzheimer's / V. Bell & D. Troxel, 2008	Los Mejores Amigos en el Cuidado de Alzheimer's is based on the Best Friends principle created by the same authors. This Spanish version describes how the fundamental components of friendship work toward ensuring quality of care and more rewarding activities for persons with the disease and caregivers.
Caregiver	Moving a relative with memory loss / L. White & B. Spencer, 2006	Moving a Relative with Memory Loss summarizes many of the issues involved in moving and offers advice on making it easier. Topics include keeping a relative at home, locating a residential care home, talking to the relative about moving, planning the move, moving in, and common emotional reactions to moving.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Caregiver	Stages of senior care: the step-by-step guide to making the best decisions / P. & L. Hogan, 2009	Written as a guide to help seniors remain in their homes for as long as possible, the resource tackles a range of difficult subjects. The book identifies the signs that indicate when it may be time to consider additional care and explores the options and their pros and cons. It includes questions to ask and further considerations when looking for care providers. Covers long distance caregivers, family disagreements about kinds of care, and funeral arrangements.
Caregiver	Talking to Alzheimer's: simple ways to connect when you visit with a family member / C.J. Struss, 2002	Talking to Alzheimer's offers advice on communicating effectively, the do's and don'ts of visiting, and steps to take when facing challenges like repetitive questioning or saying "no" to the person. The author also offers advice on dealing with one's own feelings and children being comfortable visiting persons with the disease.
Caregiver	Surviving Alzheimer's: practical tips and soul-saving wisdom for caregivers / P. Spencer Scott, 2018	Paula Spencer Scott covers the full gamut of insight and guidance on everyday care issues and those that surface only occasionally. Notable is the advice from experts in the field. "Why it happens," "Try this," and "To help you cope" sections repeat throughout the book to help caregivers focus on solutions quickly. The table-of-contents divides the work into major categories and is valuable for getting at recommendations in this 400-page expanded edition.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	But Mama, how come Grandpa gets to? / C Warren, 2013	A young boy questions his mother about why Grandpa can break the rules that he is expected to follow. Encourages families to discuss Alzheimer's and related dementia with young children. From Worldcat.org.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Getting to know you Ruben Plotnick / R. Rosenbluth, 2005	This illustrated children's book tells the story of David and Grandma Rosie, who has dementia and whose unpredictable behavior threatens to embarrass him in front of a new friend. Through trial and error David discovers the importance of looking beneath the surface to really get to know someone and learns that Ruben - who interacts with Grandma Rosie - is not just the coolest kid, he also has the warmest heart.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Grandma's Cobwebs / A. Frantti, 1998	Grandma's Cobwebs is written from the viewpoint of Claire whose grandmother has come to live with her and her family. Claire's experiences with her friends lead her to endure some hard lessons but in the end understand her grandmother's Alzheimer's better. Free to download at: http://www.alzheimershope.com/grandmascobwebs/index.php
Children Pre-school - grade 3	How does the brain work? / D. Curry, N.R. Varus, S.T. Wong, 2004	Presents a simple introduction on how the brain works with illustrations, photographs and an index.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Nana upstairs &amp; Nana downstairs / T. DePaola, 1973	Four-year old Tommy enjoys his relationship with his grandmother and great-grandmother (both called Nana) but eventually learns to face their inevitable loss.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Really and truly / E. Rivard, 2012	Charlie discovers that his grandpa doesn't have new stories to tell or even know who he is sometimes. Charlie reverses things by becoming the person to tell the stories - his grandpa's old stories.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Remember Grandma? / L. Langston, 2004	Margaret enjoys the things that make her Grandma so special including her mile-high apple pie. Lately, Grandma is forgetting. She forgets where she lives and even forgets who Margaret is which makes Margaret sad. At the same time it helps her learn how family love can live on even when someone's own memory can't.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Remember me? Alzheimer's through the eyes of a child / Te acuerdas de ci? (Bilingual/Spanish) / S. Glass, 2007	A young girl's grandfather can't or doesn't want to remember her anymore. This upsets the girl who wonders if she did something wrong. Understanding comes after Grandfather's Alzheimer's disease is exposed. From Worldcat.org
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Singing with Momma Lou / L. Jacobs Altman & L. Johnson, 2002	Nine-year-old Tamika uses photographs, school yearbooks, movie ticket stubs, and other mementos to try to restore the memory of her grandmother, who has Alzheimer's disease. From Worldcat.org

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Still my grandma / V. Van den Abeele, 2007	A young girl describes her special relationship with her grandmother, both before and after Grandma is diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease. From Worldcat.org
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Striped shirts and flowered pants / B. Schnurbush, 2006	Libby becomes concerned when her grandmother begins to forget certain things and wears clothes that do not match. Her parents help her to understand that her Nana is in the early stages of Alzheimer's disease and what that means. From Worldcat.org  □
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Wilfrid Gordon McDonald Partridge / M. Fox, 1989	Wilfrid Gordon McDonald Partridge, a small boy, knows and likes old people in the home next door, but his favorite is Miss Nancy. Like Wilfrid, Nancy Alison Delacourt Cooper also has four names. Hearing that she has lost her memory, he begins asking questions about memory and throughout the book discovers all the things that memory represents for the residents, including Miss Nancy.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	What's happening to Grandpa? / M. Shriver, 2004	Maria Shriver has written a full-color, hardcover children's book about a grandparent with Alzheimer's disease. Shriver walks a girl through acceptance and a beginning understanding of her Grandpa's condition. This well-meaning book is clearly and lovingly written.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Wordsworth dances the waltz / F. Kakugawa & M. DeSica, 2007	Wordsworth the mouse uses his poetry to help him cope when his grandmother, who once loved to dance but is now losing her memory, comes to stay with his family in Hawaii. From Worldcat.org
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Remembering for both of us: a child learns about Alzheimer's / C.B. Wood & D. Auth, 2014	Tasha's PaPa has begun to forget things lately and gets upset and befuddled. In spite of these changes, Tasha's grandmother helps her to see that PaPa still loves her in the same way he always has which goes toward helping her understand Alzheimer's a little better.
Children Pre-school - grade 3	Weeds in Nana's garden: a heartfelt story of love that helps explain Alzheimer's disease and other dementias / K. Harrison. 2016	An exploration of dementia diseases using a common illustration (gardening) that children can understand.
Grade 4 - junior high school	Before I forget / L. Pitts, 2009	A man recently diagnosed with early-onset Alzheimer's disease takes a road trip to visit his ailing, estranged father, with his unsettled teen-aged son --Provided by publisher; description from Worldcat.org.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Grade 4 - high school	Alzheimer's disease: a forgotten life / E. Landau, 2005	In this book the author offers a well-researched, clearly written resource for young people with a personal or scholarly interest in the disease. Adapted from a review by the American Library Association©.
Grade 4 - high school	Alzheimer's disease and memory drugs / C. Borda & D.J. Triggie, 2006	Examines the history, causes, and treatments of Alzheimer's disease and the impact of the disease on families and society. From Worldcat.org.
Grade 4 - high school	Alzheimer's disease (Health Alert Series) / M. T. Brill, 2006	This book for teens discusses Alzheimer's disease, including what it is like to have the disease, the history and research, and how people cope with it. From Worldcat.org
Grade 4 - high school	Alzheimer's disease (Just the facts) / J. McGuigan, 2005	Provides an overview of Alzheimer's disease: describes what it is, the history of the disease, what it is like to live with this form of dementia, and some of the available treatments. From Worldcat.org

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Grade 4 - high school	Curveball, the year I lost my grip / J. Sonnenblick, 2012	After an injury ends former star pitcher Peter Friedman's athletic dreams, he concentrates on photography which leads him to a girlfriend, a new fame as a high school sports photographer, and a deeper relationship with the beloved grandfather who, when he realizes he is becoming senile, gives Pete all of his professional camera gear. From Worldcat.org
Grade 4 - high school	Graduation of Jake Moon / B. Park, 2000	GoodReads: Barbara Park, one of today's most popular and versatile authors, has created a funny, honest, and unforgettable portrait of a boy struggling to understand this debilitating disease and graduate to a more sympathetic and accepting relationship with his beloved grandfather.
Grade 4 - high school	Pop / G. Korman, 2012	Lonely after a midsummer move to a new town, sixteen-year-old high-school quarterback Marcus Jordan becomes friends with a retired professional linebacker who is great at training him, but whose behavior keeps Marcus in hot water. From Worldcat.org
Grade 4 - high school	The brilliant fall of Gianna Z. / K. Messner, 2010	Gianna has less than one week to complete her leaf project if she wants to compete in the upcoming cross-country sectionals, but issues like procrastination, disorganization - and her grandmother's declining health - seem destined to keep her from finishing. From Worldcat.org

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Grade 4 - high school	An absent mind / E. Rill, 2014	Saul Reimer's Alzheimer's is going to be the catalyst that will either bring his family together or tear it apart. Seventy-one and a controlling person, Saul finds himself slipping into the abyss - "his slow dance with death," he calls it. As he carries on, we see humor, emotions, lucid moments, and confusion. We are also privy to the thoughts and feelings his family share with us. From Worldcat.org.
Grade 4 - high school	What flowers remember / S. Wiersbizky, 2014	Delia and Old Red Clancy dream up a seed- and flower-selling business. But something is happening to Old Red. The doctors say he can't be cured. He's forgetting places and names and getting cranky for no reason. As his condition worsens, Delia takes it upon herself to save as many memories as she can. Her mission is to gather Old Red's stories so that no one will forget, and she corrals everybody in town to help her. Adapted from back cover.
Fiction	All the dancing birds / A. McCanta, 2012	GoodReads: Told from Lillie Claire's perspective, All the Dancing Birds offers beautiful and terrifying insight into the secret mind of those touched—and ultimately changed—by the mystery of Alzheimer's disease
Fiction	Faith Bass Darling's last garage sale / L. Rudledge. 2012	The richest women in Bass and twenty-year recluse holds a garage sale of family antique treasures spanning many generations. Her Alzheimer's disease is the reason for her behavior, but the author uses wittiness and levity to assuage the strain of many situations. The questions explored in the book are: do our possessions possess us and what are we without our memories? Is there life after death or second chances here on earth?

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Fiction	Still Alice / L. Genova, 2009	Alice Howland, happily married with three grown children and a house on the Cape, is a celebrated Harvard professor at the height of her career when she notices a forgetfulness creeping into her life. As confusion starts to cloud her thinking and her memory begins to fail her, she receives a devastating diagnosis: early onset Alzheimer's disease." From Worldcat.org.
Fiction	Story of forgetting: a novel / S.M. Block, 2009	Resigned to memories of the family he has lost, seventy-year-old recluse Abel Haggard spends his life alone on the family farm while, hundreds of miles away, fifteen-year-old Seth Waller seeks to uncover his mother's genetic history after a diagnosis of early-onset Alzheimer's. From Worldcat.org.
Fiction	Unbecoming / J. Downham, 2016	Granddaughter Katie assembles the pieces of Mary's life to discover that this grandmother not only faces Alzheimer's but suffered huge sacrifices growing up. Through this, Katie finds perspective on troubling relationships in her family and on herself.
Free	Order free publications / National Institute on Aging	Order dozens of free publications covering: aging, dementia care, advance care planning, medication, biomarkers, end-of-life, Lewy body dementia, frontotemporal dementia, alcohol use, activities, exercise, health issues facing older adults, and more. https://order.nia.nih.gov/view-all-publications

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Free	ePub - Newsletters, Magazines, Journals	Green-Field Library Pinterest Page
Magazines / Journals	Brain & life / American Academy of Neurology	Brain & Life® focuses on the intersection of neurologic disease and brain health. https://www.brainandlife.org/about-us/about-brain-life
Magazines / Journals	Caregiver assistance news / Comfort of Home	A 4-page monthly newsletter on topics of interest to direct-care workers for building caregiving skills. Contains illustrations and self-care tips. The information can be used for self-training through a quiz insert with each issue. Subscribe at http://www.comfortofhome.com/caregiver-assistance-news
Magazines / Journals	Perspectives: a newsletter for individuals diagnosed with Alzheimer's disease / L. Snyder (editor)	Published quarterly until 2017 with a grant from the National Institute on Aging. Feature articles, tips, advice, news, and book reviews written by Lisa Snyder and guest authors constitute the first such national newsletter for persons with Alzheimer's. Read issues at http://adrc.ucsd.edu/news.html

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Magazines / Journals	Preserving your memory / Fisher Center for Alzheimer's Research Foundation	Award-winning magazine; up-to-date information about Alzheimer's and advice about care; latest in disease research, where to go for help, as well as caregiving tips and strategies for healthy living. Subscribe at https://www.alzinfo.org/news/preserving-your-memory-magazine
Magazines / Journals	Today's caregiver magazine / Caregiver Media Group	Today's Caregiver is a national magazine for caregivers that contains feature articles, interviews, book reviews, letters, poetry, advertisements and advertiser index. Specific articles are searchable from the search function. Download issues in PDF or subscribe at http://www.caregiver.com/magazine
Person with Alzheimer's	Becoming an activated patient: how to take control and enhance the level of health care / A.S. Halperiin & G. Davis, 2014	Professional Sandy Halperin, diagnosed with Alzheimer's in 2010, shares 16 steps and patient-tested tools for navigating the health care system based on his own experiences. Halperin also served on the Alzheimer's Association Early Stage Advisory Group, is the focus of a CNN documentary and publishes with Gina Davidson.
Person with Alzheimer's	By us for us guides / Murray Alzheimer Education and Research Program, University of Waterloo, 2010	The By Us For Us ® Guides are a series of guides created by persons with dementia and intended to furnish persons with dementia with the tools to enhance their sense of well being and manage daily challenges. Free to order or download at http://www.marep.uwaterloo.ca/products/bufu.html

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Person with Alzheimer's	Dancing with elephants: mindfulness training for those living with dementia, chronic illness, or an aging brain / J. Sawatsky, 2017	Covers: embracing hard things; replacing fear with love; letting go, celebrating everything; living the life you've got; and more topics not easily found elsewhere.
Person with Alzheimer's	Living your best with early stage: an essential guide / Lisa Snyder 2010	Lisa Snyder answers questions not usually addressed in an office visit including medical, emotional, practical and legal questions asked by persons who are first diagnosed - as well as advice from other people with the disease. A practical resource that explores the person's own experiences and help with finding direction. Strategies for coping, managing symptoms, finding meaningful activity, planning for the future, easier communication, and participating in research.
Professional	Alzheimer's and the practice of law: counseling clients... / R.L. Law & K. Peck, American Bar Association, 2013.	Families may seek the advice of an attorney following the diagnosis of Alzheimer's. Issues in this manual include protecting assets, options for health care, long-term care outlook, affect these have on the person and family, the ethics of working with clients with Alzheimer's and more. Interviews with clinicians and leaders of the Alzheimer's Association are included.
Professional	Best friends approach to Alzheimer's care / V. Bell & D. Troxel, 2002	Being a best friend to the person is an innovative model of care developed by the authors that stresses calm and empathy when guiding the person to acceptable behavior. Cueing and actual responses help the caregiver learn precisely how to handle specific situations and transfer that knowledge to other complicated predicaments. The approach presented takes time and energy, but its effectiveness and compassion make it a rich and plentiful resource.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Professional	Best friends staff: building a culture of care in Alzheimer's programs / V. Bell & D. Troxel, 2001	Best Friends Staff contains stories and discussion from facility staff already using the Best Friends™ approach. Case studies demonstrating successful programs, ideas for implementing change, and advice on staff training and retention are included with exercise, activities, games and resources.
Professional	Counseling people with early-stage Alzheimer's disease / R. Yale, 2013	Persons in early-stage dementia face unique challenges and have specific needs. This manual covers such topics as the approach to counseling, the process, techniques, goals, the role of the family, the practice (finding participants, enrollment, and evaluation and administrative aspects)
Professional	Counseling the Alzheimer caregiver / M. Mittelman, C. Epstein, A. Pierz, 2002	Based on lessons learned from 15 years of clinical experience and observation and demonstrated treatment interventions. Outlines the symptoms of Alzheimer's at each stage, describes the caregiver's and counselor's roles throughout the disease, offers ways to develop individualized care plans for behavior and psychological symptoms, and provides ideas for support services at home persons and decision-making guidance about placement.
Professional	Creativity and communication in persons with dementia: a practical guide / J. Killick & C. Craig, 2011	Using a variety of creative art forms (poetry, story-telling, collage, drama, music, photography, textiles, wood and metal working in a range of settings, the authors discuss the theories of creativity and how to encourage it in persons with the disease.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Professional	Dementia care with Black and Latino families: a social work problem solving approach / D. González Sanders & R. Fortinsky, 2011	A social work guide to help professional caregivers understand dementia through the eyes of Black and Latinos groups. Covers incidence and prevalence, understanding caregiving for ethnic caregivers, the social world of culturally diverse caregivers, caregiver role responsibilities, behavior problem solving, assessment tools for work with caregivers, services to ethnic caregivers, caregiver problem solving, and more.
Professional	Dementia reconsidered: the person comes first / T. Kitwood, 1997	Tom Kitwood, developed the Bradford Dementia Group, University of Bradford, United Kingdom, is often described as the father of person-centered care. Dementia Reconsidered illustrates the nature of dementia and what is reasonable to expect of the person when quality of care is high. Kitwood reappraises older attitudes towards persons with dementia. He draws on research, analysis, his own experiences in an innovative point-of-view placing "personhood" at the center.
Professional	Design innovations for aging and Alzheimer's / E. Brawley, 2005	The focus of Design Innovation for Aging and Alzheimer's is emerging buildings and spaces and sustainable material and design solutions for adult day care, assisted living, and nursing homes. Photographs are included. Consult also Brawley's first book: Designing for Alzheimer's: Strategies for Creating Better Care Environments which includes practical guidance for such areas as lighting, acoustics, color, safety, and more.
Professional	Developing support groups for individuals with early stage Alzheimer's disease: planning, implementation, and evaluation / R. Yale, 1995	The author's book has been widely used in many care settings since it was first published. Intended to help people cope in the early stage of the disease, in a format that is easy to follow, it includes ideas, solutions and insights on running a dementia support group.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Professional	Enduring self in people with Alzheimer's: getting to the heart of individualized care / S. Fazio, 2008	Demonstrates a person's unique self and how this persists throughout the course of the disease and how much can be done in care settings to support a person's sense of identity. Brings together the recommendations of best thinkers and practitioners to illustrate the importance of providing dementia care that recognizes and supports personhood. Provides strategies for restructuring the physical and social environment to facilitate person-centered care.
Professional	Evidence-based geriatric nursing protocols for best practice / M, Boltz, et al. (editors), 2016	Aimed to help improve quality, outcomes, and costs of healthcare for elders in long-term care facilities, hospitals, and the community. In its third edition, it is again targeted to individual nurses and institutions. Each chapter addresses a clinical problem that older people face and summarizes the "best practice" for that problem. The third edition includes numerous revised and updated chapters and new topics.
Professional	Excellence in dementia care: research into practice / M. Downs & B.J. Bowers (editors), 2014	Presents an overview of psycho-social concepts and perspectives in dementia care using evidence from the lived experience of persons with the disease and their families and practice and research. Includes sections on best practices, care pathways, culture change and such special topics as ethnicity, ethics, dementia friendly communities, and more. From Worldcat.org
Professional	Lippincott's manual of psychiatric nursing care plans / J.M. Schultz & S.L. Videbeck, 2013	Contents: Part 1: The context of dementia care; Part 2: Conceptualizing dementia care; Part 3: Best practice dementia care for the person; Part 4: Care pathways [at home, care homes, acute hospital, palliative]; Part 5: Making sustainable change happen in dementia care (changing the culture of care).

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Professional	Longest loss (The): Alzheimer's disease and dementia / Hospice Foundation of America, 2015	A companion book to the annual Living with Grief teleconference. Contains current theory, clinical practice, and evidence based interventions on the topic of grief and loss as it is experienced in persons with dementia and their families.
Professional	Memory loss: a practical guide for clinicians / A.E. Budson & P.R. Solomon, 2011	Combines guidance, case studies, and diagnostic tests to help clinicians effectively diagnosis Alzheimer's disease and other common dementia. This title covers the essentials of physical and cognitive examinations, laboratory and imaging studies, and the various treatment approaches. From Worldcat.org
Professional	Palliative care for advanced Alzheimer's and dementia: guidelines and standards for evidence-based care / G. Martin, M. Sabbagh (editors), 2010	Winner of the American Journal of Nursing Book of the Year Award for 2010, this title is an introduction to palliative care standards for advanced dementia. It reviews the philosophy of person-centered care, addresses assessment, planning, implementation, and evaluation measures. The basic human needs of persons in advanced stages are covered as well as more complex care decisions while supporting the person's right to autonomy.
Professional	Sexuality and dementia: compassionate and practical strategies for dealing with unexpected or inappropriate behaviors / D. Wornell, 2014	Douglas Wornell covers an array of issues surrounding sexuality and dementia including recommendations to decrease the risk of injury and legal liability in long-term care, use and over-use of medication, and non-pharmacological management of inappropriate behaviors while respecting the person.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Professional	Ambiguous loss: learning to live with unresolved grief / P. Boss, 2000	The author, who is a family therapist, provides insight into the complexities of grief in families who have experienced ambiguous loss in a variety of situations including Alzheimer's where the person may be physically present but psychologically lost.
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	Emotional journey of the Alzheimer's family / R.B. Santulli, 2015	The emotional journey of the families with Alzheimer's is complex. Appropriate for professionals and anyone close to or caring for a person with dementia, this book helps clarify the myriad of feelings that arise: anxiety, guilt, anger, and shame and describes the harshness of discord - in light of family disagreement - and adapting and accepting the disease - all of which can lead to personal growth.
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	Guide to the spiritual dimension of care for people with AD and related dementia / E. Shamy, 2003	A resource and guide for professionals, volunteers and anyone involved in the pastoral care of persons with Alzheimer's. The guide explores the physical and spiritual well-being, dignity and freedom of choice of the person, and how these can be fostered. It examines the volunteers own sense of empathy, understanding and support of the person and also presents practical advice on memory cueing and leading worship for those with dementia.
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	Loving someone who has dementia: how to find hope while coping with stress and grief / P. Boss, 2011	Loving Someone Who Has Dementia focuses primarily on issues of having someone in your presence but not there, the grief surrounding this type of "ambiguous loss," and guidance on rebounding during the hard times.

Subject Category	Book Title	Description
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	More beautiful than before: how suffering transforms us / S. Leder, 2017	Amazon: The author approaches his thesis from the standpoint of sooner or later everyone walks through hell. Examines the many ways we can transform physical, psychological, or emotional pain into a more beautiful and meaningful life.
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	Spirituality and personhood in dementia / A. Jewell, 2011	Leading researchers and clinicians maintain an interdisciplinary approach in Spirituality and Personhood in Dementia . Theory, structure, and practical understanding play a role in the spiritual perspectives - from Christian to Buddhist - as well as for persons not part of a faith tradition. A resource for healthcare workers and pastoral care staff.
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	You are one of us: successful clergy/church connections to Alzheimer's families / L. Gwyther, 1995	A 65-page, easy-to-follow book with suggestions for ways clergy and churches can help their members with Alzheimer's and their families.
Spiritual Inspirational Grief & Loss	Where two worlds touch: a spiritual journey through Alzheimer's disease / J.C. Angelica, 2013	The author, who holds an M.Div. from Harvard, has worked many years with persons with dementia and cared for her mother through the disease. Based on the principle that there is great potential and capacity for meaningful relationships in Alzheimer's, Angelica provides a memoir and spiritual guide for caregivers on preserving connections, finding hope and staying open to the possibility of grace. Excerpted from Worldcat.org